FINLEY IS CHOSEN HEAD OF SOUTHERN

Fills Place Made Vacant By the Death of Spencer.

RAILWAY MEN ARE PLEASED

New President Has Been Active in Railway Work Since 1875—He Was Once Associated With James J.
Hill, of the Great Northern.

New York, Dec. 7.—The directors of the Southern railway have elected W. W. Finley, of Washington, president of the company, to succeed the late Samuel Spencer. Mr. Finley has been second vice president of the road since Sept. 15, 1896. He has been active in railway work since 1875.

Prior to entering the Southern's service, Mr. Finley was second vice president of the Great Northern railway; before that he was third vice president of the Great Northern railway. For two years he was chairman of the Southeastern Passenger Association at Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Finley was at times associated with James J. Hill.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The election of W. W. Finley as president of the Southern railway caused very general satisfaction in the Washington railroad world, and it is believed here this feeling will extend among railroad men throughout the south. The first official information received at Southern railway headquarters here was contained in a dispatch from New York from R. D. Lankford, secretary of the company. This confirmation of a rumor that had been current for several days terminated a discussion caused by the dispatch in the Washington Post, that Stuyvesant Fish, the recently deposed president of the Illinois Central, would be made president of the Southern.

Mr. Finley and Colonel Andrews have not yet returned from New York, both having gone on to attend the directors' meeting. Mr. Finley, while proverbially modest and retiring, is recognized as a thoroughly competent operating man, and one thoroughly conversant with the technical features of railroading.

2-Year-Old Burns to Death.

Austell, Ga., Dec. 7.—The little 2-year-old child of Mrs. Tosso McEwen was burned to death at her home Wednesday. The child was left with one of the older children, while Mrs. McEwen went to her work, just outside of the city. The baby's dress caught fire while the older child was in the yard drawing water. Hearing the screams she ran to the helpless baby, and succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until the child was so terribly burned that it died within two hours.

Friend of Mrs. Thaw Weds.

New York, Dec. 7.—It was learned Thursday that Miss Edna McClure, an actress and friend of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was married last Saturday to Jack Richardson, of Goldfield, Nevada. The couple left later for the west. After the shooting of Stanford White by Harry Thaw last June, Miss McClure was subpoenaed by District Attorney Jerome and is supposed to have given him important information bearing upon the tragedy.

Gets $4,000 Verdict for Injuries.

New York, Dec. 7.—May Gartlick, an old-time opera singer who married an Italian nobleman, the Marquis de Foo, got a verdict in the supreme court for $4,000 against the Metropolitan Street Railway company. She testified that eleven years ago as she was getting on a car she was thrown backward, breaking her ankle and suffering injuries which make it impossible for her to pursue her stage and operatic career.

Battleship Louisiana Sails.

Newport News, Va., Dec. 7.—The battleship Louisiana sailed from Hampton Roads Thursday for New Orleans, where she will be presented with a silver service on December 15.

SAY CHARGE IS FALSE.

Spicy Card from Lawyers Charged with Unprofessional Conduct.

Fitzgerald, Ga., Dec. 7.—Judge John W. Haygood and his law partner, Eldredge Cutts, have given out a spicy interview concerning the publication of the fact that they had been called to appear before United States court on the charge of unprofessional conduct. Their card is as follows: "In reference to the proceedings in the United States court, in which we are charged with unprofessional conduct, we do not desire to try this case in newspapers, but in view of the very conspicuous publication which has been given the matter we deem it proper to state that we will be prepared to prove those charges so far as they reflect on us professionally or personally, to be absolutely and maliciously false, and to show the wicked motive back of this proceeding. We simply ask a suspension of public opinion until this matter is heard in court."

LODGE FIGHTS CHILD LABOR.

Bill to Prohibit Inter-State Commerce in Articles Made By Children.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—Senator Lodge has introduced a bill designed to prevent the employment of child labor under 14 years of age has been employed, and the prohibition extends to children under 16 years of age, who cannot read and write. The violation of the law is made a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $500, and imprisonment for one year. Speaking of the bill, Senator Lodge said:

"There is great interest in the question in my own state, where we have had for a long time excellent laws on the statute book forbidding the employment of child labor, and in the last three or four years the matter has been very much discussed in Massachusetts, especially by Governor Guild, who has been most earnest in advocating some national regulation."

Orders New Rolling Stock.

San Francisco, Dec. 7.—The Southern Pacific has just ordered constructed about $6,000,000 worth of new rolling stock, and has placed orders aggregating $4,000,000 with different locomotive and car manufacturing concerns, so that its equipment may be augmented as quickly as possible to meet the growing demands for more cars and more facilities for transportation. The figures as given out at the general manager's office yesterday, show a very material enlargement of the equipment of the company. Compared with the rolling stock now in commission the prospective additions amount in some cases to an increase of 25 per cent.

Patrick Appeals for Pardon.

New York, Dec. 7.—It was stated here Wednesday that Albert T. Patrick, who is under sentence of death in Sing Sing prison for the murder of William M. Rice, the Texas capitalist, had secretly prepared an application to Governor Higgins for a pardon. According to reports, Patrick turned from his attitude of resolute refusal to seek mercy only after pleading by his wife and other relatives. Patrick himself is said to have drawn up the application, which analyzes his entire case.

Chisolm in Insane Asylum.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Dec. 7.—Alexander R. Chisolm, who was tried recently before the United States court, at Birmingham, on the charge of embezzling $100,000 from the First National bank, was brought here and placed in the Bryce insane hospital. Chisolm was recently on trial at Birmingham, when a sick juror caused a mistrial. The defendant was later released on $15,000 bond. While his trial was in progress his sanity was investigated by the jury, which declared him mentally incapable.

Cop and Negro Killed in Duel.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 7.—A special from Pine Bluff, Ark., says that J. F. Calpepper, former chief of police, and widely known throughout the southwest, was shot and killed in a pistol duel with a negro by the name of Brock, early Wednesday morning. After receiving mortal wounds Calpepper fired at the negro, sending a bullet through his heart.

RAWLINGS BOYS WILL NOT HANG

Pardon Board Recommends Commutation of Sentences.

LADS ARE SAVED FROM GALLOWS

When Attorney Cooper Appeared Before Board He Was Informed that Recommendation Had Already Been Made.

Atlanta, Dec. 7.—The pardon board Thursday morning commuted the sentences of Jesse and Milton Rawlings who were to be hanged Friday for the murder of the Carter children, to life imprisonment and the lives of the lads will be spared.

Attorney John Randolph Cooper was at the capitol to make a final plea for the boys, but when he appeared before the board the decision had already been reached. Attorney Cooper was promptly informed that the board would recommend the commutation to life imprisonment. The recommendation goes immediately to Governor Terrell, and there is no doubt that he will sign it, and that the two boys will be saved from death on the gallows Friday.

The action of the pardon board will not be a surprise to the public, and will meet with general approval. The feeling was general that the part the youths had in the crime of killing the Carter children was inspired by old man J. G. Rawlings, the father, who has already paid the death penalty. Hundreds of people interested themselves in the case and urged the board to spare the lives of the boys and give them a chance to make men out of themselves. The hanging of old man Rawlings satisfied the ends of justice and life imprisonment will be regarded by the public as the very severest punishment that should have been meted out to the youngsters.

They Leaped from Windows.

Gadsden, Ala., Dec. 7.—Five persons were hurt in a fire Wednesday before daylight, which destroyed the boarding house of John Cooper. The occupants of the second floor were cut off from escape and they leaped out of the windows. A man named Montgomery threw his two children out and then, with his wife, jumped. Mrs. Montgomery had her leg broken. Mrs. Marshall also sustained a broken leg and Miss Willa Dehann is seriously and perhaps fatally hurt about the neck. All the occupants escaped in their night robes.

Deadly Pistol Duel.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 7.—A desperate pistol duel occurred in a south side saloon between Alf Parker, a blacksmith, and J. P. Edwards, the bartender, in which Parker was instantly killed and Edwards received wounds believed to be fatal. Both men emptied their revolvers, Parker being shot once through the heart, and once through the chin, while Edwards was wounded in the leg and left side. The duel followed a charge by Parker of mistreatment in the saloon.

Sentence of Negroes Commuted.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The president has commuted to life imprisonment the sentence of death imposed on Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, negro members of the crew of the schooner Henry A. Berwind, who were convicted of mutiny and murder aboard that vessel about a year ago. The men were tried at Wilmington, N. C., and are now in jail at that place. Another member of the crew who was convicted on the charge already has been executed.

Cost of Living Increases.

New York, Dec. 7.—Figures giving the average cost of living as of Dec. 1, compiled by R. G. Dun & Co., show that there has been a marked advance in price as compared with Nov. 1, when it reached a high water mark. In the lapse of one month the cost of living has advanced from $106.63 to $108.17, reached on Dec. 1. The cost of commodities is the highest since February, 1904.

TRIAL ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

Prominent Southern People Attend Birdsong Trial.

Hazelhurst, Miss., Dec. 7.—Prominent persons from many parts of the south are gathered here for the trial of Mrs. Angie Birdsong on a charge of murdering Dr. Thomas Butler.

Although the trial has been removed by change of venue from Monticello, Miss., where both Mrs. Birdsong and Dr. Butler lived, yet the bitter factional feelings and taking of sides with one or the other of the prominent families to which each of the principals belongs has followed this case even after a lapse of more than a year from the time of the physician's death.

The so-called "unwritten law" is, according to the facts developed in the preliminary hearing of this case, the main issue which will be fought over in behalf of Mrs. Birdsong. It was testified at this hearing that Dr. Butler was the cause of disparaging stories in circulation in Monticello about Mrs. Birdsong.

A legal battle royal upon the right of the woman to avenge herself deliberately is expected, with United States Senator A. J. McLaurin leading the defense and former Governor of Mississippi Longino heading the prosecution. To add to the excitement there are many rumors that personal quarrels which have grown out of the unfortunate shooting are likely to be settled during the progress of the trial.

Cattle Tick Eradication.

Nashville, Dec. 7.—A convention was held here Wednesday for the purpose of considering the eradication of cattle ticks and the prevention of Texas fever in the south, there being present authorities of the bureau of animal industry, and representatives from Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and California. About fifty persons were present. Colonel R. F. Wright, assistant commissioner of agriculture, whose headquarters are in Georgia, was selected chairman, and Dr. Albenberger, of this city, secretary. Addresses were delivered by A. D. Melvin, chief of the federal bureau of animal industry; Dr. R. D. Steddom, of the same bureau; Professor H. A. Morgan, director of the Tennessee experiment station, at Knoxville; J. P. McGabe, conductor of the bureau of animal industry, and many other men.

Farmers' Union Vote is Counted.

Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 7.—The counting of the referendum vote by the directors of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative union, upon the new constitution of the organization as submitted by the annual convention held at Texarkana in September, was completed here, with the result that it was adopted by an overwhelming vote, and thus becomes the unions organic law. The new constitution of the union contains many important features, and its effect will be to establish the union upon a still more firm and substantial basis. It is believed this action will result in rapidly increasing the membership of the union, which has already passed the $90,000 mark. The Georgia members of the union voted 14 to 1 in favor of the new constitution.

Go To See His Dying Wife.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 7.—The governor has paroled C. E. Brannan until January 1 to go home to his wife, who is thought to be dying at Mobile. Some time ago the governor refused a pardon. The wife lives near Citronelle. Brannan killed a man named N. Q. Thompson and was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary in February, 1903. The governor has offered an additional reward of $50 for the arrest and delivery to the sheriff of Limestone county of Ernest McEwen, who is charged with the murder of Bert McCormack. This raises the reward by the state to $100.

Delay for Thaw Trial.

New York, Dec. 7.—The trial of Harry K. Thaw, for the murder of Stanford White, the architect, will not begin until March or April of next year, unless District Attorney Jerome consents to re-arrange his court calendar.

ON JAPANESE ROOSEVELT HEDGES

Explains Message to Pacific Californians.

SOLDIERS ONLY AGAINST

He Will Not Attempt to Use the Military to Force Japanese into White Public Schools of the City of San Francisco.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The California delegation in congress has received what they consider satisfactory assurance that the president does not desire to be understood as acting in the Japanese section of a message that he would use military force of the United States to force Japanese into the California schools in which white children are taught.

It is said to have been his purpose to convey the idea that he would use the military to protect Japan against mob violence. California take no offense at this interpretation of the message and agree that chief executive should do all in his power to protect Japanese as well as all other foreigners against violence.

Inquiry today disclosed the fact that the legal proceedings to be taken in San Francisco by the United States district attorney in the case of admission of Japanese to the public schools of that city without discrimination, were inspired by Secretary Root, who expressed the opinion that it would be one way of effectively disposing of the controversy. That the president's views on the subject meet with the hearty approval of the Japanese government was made evident today when Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, said that he had personally thanked the president for what he had said.

A rumor that a new treaty between the United States and Japan was being negotiated, designed to remedy any defects in the one now in force was set at rest today when both Viscount Aoki and Secretary Root unequivocally denied that such a thing even was in the proposition.

Tokio, Dec. 6.—Most of the papers here highly eulogize President Roosevelt's attitude toward the Japanese, expressed in his message. One paper is delighted that the confidence reposed in the president has been warranted.

Three Killed in Elevator.

Chambersburg, Pa., Dec. 7.—Three men were killed, one was fatally injured and five others severely hurt at Waynesboro by the fall of an elevator in the Geisler Manufacturing Company's shops. Eleven men were on the lift, together with a five-horsepower mill and heavy truck when a cable parted. The men were dropped 25 feet, with the machinery into a pit, and George Freeman, John Torson and Larar Papian were crushed to death. Nicholas Hanson was fatally injured. All of the injured were brought to the hospital in this city.

To Add $25,000,000 to Wages.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—The railroad of Chicago contemplate making increases in the wages of their employees in the immediate future which, in the aggregate will make all increases made on the railroads of the country in the recent past seem small by comparison. Advances are expected to be given between now and January 1, which will make the combined incomes of the 450,000 employees of these lines from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 greater in 1907 than in 1906.

Heavy Immigration to Texas.

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 7.—Immigration into Texas at border points was heavier during the month of November than it has been for many years. According to the monthly report of L. C. Steward, agent for the San Antonio district, 232 foreigners were admitted at the ports of Laredo, Eagle Pass, Del Rio and Presidio during the month of November. Thirty-four persons were deferred as not being fit to become citizens.

CITY WILL BOND TO BUY BARRACKS

At Least, An Election Will Be Called to Determine Question.

A NIGHT OF ORDINANCES

Entire Meeting Was Devoted to Passing and Discussing Documents of This Nature—Pious People Want All Business Suspended on Sunday.

The City Council convened in adjourned session Thursday night for the purpose of considering the unfinished business of the regular monthly meeting.

The most important action of the council at this meeting was the passage upon its third and final reading, and adoption of an ordinance calling for an election for the bonding of the city for $10,000, the purpose of which shall be to raise funds for the purchase of the old East Florida Seminary barracks.

An ordinance was passed providing for the paving of East Liberty street between Arredondo and Pleasant. This work has already been completed, but no provision has been made for same, hence the introduction and passage of the ordinance.

An ordinance was presented providing that all places of business be closed on the Sabbath. This ordinance brought forth considerable discussion, pro and con, and was finally laid over without action. The same fate fell to a proposed ordinance providing for the "peace and morals" of the city. This ordinance is severe on disorderly houses and gambling, seeking to force the former beyond the limits of the city, and suppressing, in so far as possible, the gambling habit.

The New Pound.

After several months' endeavor to secure a new pound—at least to have a new pound built—for the care of cows placed under arrest, the city has a new "cow jail," which is located on East Masonic street, near the county jail, where two-legged offenders may peep through the bars and console with their associates of more inoffensive nature.

The new pound has been completed, and will be used in future for the imprisonment of cows who insist on offending the city ordinance by running at large. The old pound on East Liberty street will be abandoned.

At W. C. T. U. Room.

A meeting of the Christian and Mission Alliance will be held in the reading room of the W. C. T. U. this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and this evening at 7. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. R. S. Bruce, superintendent of the Alliance work in Florida, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Services will be conducted at the same hours on Sunday.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

THE ROSE OF JERICHO.

It Is the Original of All the Resurrection Plants.

Several varieties of the so called resurrection plant have appeared among the novelties offered by florists, but the original is the rose of Jericho. Along the shores of the Dead sea, far enough away to be out of reach of the death dealing vapors and the salt spray, grows this rose, a little plant famed in many a legendary story, which, when ripened, rolls up its sprays and branches into a curious little brown ball.

The desert winds snap off its dry stem and whirl the seemingly dead little ball away over sandy plains, like a featherweight. After it chances to reach some damp place, in about ten days, the moisture has wrought a miracle, for the once dead is alive again, green and growing.

The old time pilgrims, who brought back this plant with them from the Holy Land, told wonderful tales of its power to bloom out on Christmas day and gave it the name of resurrection flower. Another old legend names it St. Mary's rose, because it is said that when Joseph and Mary were fleeing from Egypt one of these flowers grew from every spot where they halted to rest.

The dry ball when unfolding drops its seed, and from these it may be cultivated as an annual. To resurrect these dry balls it is simply necessary to keep them standing in glasses of water, immersed about halfway to the top of their branches. The expansion is merely a mechanical, spongelike process.

The botanical name of the rose of Jericho is anastatica, from anastasis, resurrection. There are other species of resurrection plants, but they are not so attractive as their Dead sea relative, which, although, it has very little beauty, has an honored place among flowers because of the many fancies and associations it calls up and its peculiar development.—Exchange.

A Quaint Epitaph.

The following epitaph is copied from a tombstone in Brandon, Vt., marking the grave of a child who died at the age of a few days:

Sweet maid, she glanced into our world to see

A sample of our misery. She turned away her languid eye To drop a tear or two and sigh.

Sweet maid, she tasted of life's bitter cup.

Refused to drink her portion up. She turned her little head aside, Disgusted with the taste, and died.

I INVITE EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD HERE

Every Person of Gainesville to Eat With Me Tomorrow at My Expense.

This is an invitation that you simply cannot afford to ignore. I'll tell you why.

I'm going to feed you on a food that helps digest all other foods, a food that "stops the sharp pangs of dyspepsia in two minutes by the watch," so swears Mr. Henry Gray, and many others.

A food that made Assistant Postmaster Estes "feel like a two-year-old in a clover pasture."

A food that makes brains in five hours and blood in four.

A highly nutritious, stomachic food, made from the pineapple, and the paw-paw-melon, figs, oranges, celery and a few other good things for the nerves, stomach and bowels.

You may be starving your blood and brain in the midst of plenty. It isn't how much you eat that counts, but it's how you digest the food you eat.

You can't get steam out of water without fire; you can't get brain power, nerve force and blood corpuscles out of food without digestion.

Thousands lack sufficient vital force and don't know why.

They think they need a tonic, a vacation or a change of scenery. But they don't. It's old indigestion that's the matter with them, and six days' use of my Biscuit will prove it.

They don't get the strength out of their food. It's like running corn through a mill with the rollers too wide apart; the corn goes through, but the mill doesn't grind.

Don't think you must have a pain to have indigestion.

Lack of flesh, too much fat, pimples, blotches, sallow complexion, lack of nerve force, impoverished blood, insomnia, headaches, weak brain power, may all be due to a faulty digestive process either in the stomach or bowels.

Eat my Biscuit along with your other food for a week and find out how your digestive organs are working! If the Biscuit helps you greatly, gives you more force, strength and brain power, you may set it down that your stomach, liver and bowels were doing their duty.

Only yesterday your head may have felt dull and heavy; you had "blues;" were cross, nervous or irritable; everything seemed to go wrong and you couldn't tell why.

It's ten to one it was old dyspepsia getting in his work, not enough to cause you pain, but just enough to dull your brain, rob you of your vitality, upset your liver and deplete your nerve force. Maybe you don't think so, but just try one package of Biscuit and see if they don't cheer "blues" to a bright, cheery red; make the old world laugh in a merry way and put vigor and vim in your again.

National Bank President Kean Olean, N. Y., had stomach trouble bad that he had to live on malted milk and even that caused him pain—he ate three biscuits and went to eating meals—sounds like a miracle. We have Mr. Kinner's own letter to effect.

W. G. Reach of Hornellsville, N. Y., says he hadn't been able to work several years—had dyspepsia so bad after eating my biscuit two weeks got a position and went to work, he can eat anything now and feel "tip-top." This is only two of hundreds.

Mr. Dyspeptic, have you ever heard of the wonderful Biscuit that tells that really tells you itself what it does—that's Neale's. Five minutes after you eat it the biscuit begins to undo its virtues and it will by actual demonstration prove to you more in regard its merits in ten minutes than I can probably make you believe if I say and read you ten books as large as dictionaries.

"It seems like a dream," swears Charles F. Bowman. "Gave me relief in three minutes," says Mrs. W. Crutenden. "Stopped my pain in ten minutes," swears Mr. Joseph F. man.

You may know some of these people or know somebody who knows them. I'll send you their pictures and addresses if you want them, so that you can find out all about my Biscuit and the wonders it has wrought.

Probably you are now thinking whether all this can be true—stop! I will send you absolutely free a large 25c package of my Dyspepsia Biscuit and wonderful Fig Chocolates at once, and let them prove what I say, provided you will send me 4c to pay actual cost of postage. Cut and use coupon below.

COME EAT WITH ME AT MY EXPENSE

This coupon entitles you to one large 25-cent package of Neale's Dyspepsia Biscuit and Fig Chocolates, absolutely free (provided you have never tried them). If you will send 4c to pay actual cost of postage at merchandise rates. Will also send a free copy of our elegantly illustrated journal, called "Strenuous Life," printed in colors. It tells all about the biscuit, what it contains, how it is made, what it does and how it does it. It tells about the chocolates, too—the wonderful Fig Chocolates that make the liver go all day, every day, just like a clock. Read the large advertisement printed above, then put 4c in stamps in a letter today, with this coupon and a full 25 cent package of these wonderful articles will be delivered at your very door tomorrow. Checking a Cough.

It is not usually supposed that any exercise of the will power can be made efficient in checking a cough or a sneeze, but a celebrated doctor says sneezing can be stopped by pressing on the nerve of the lips in the neighborhood of the nose. Coughing may be stopped by slight pressure in front of the ear. This will also stop hiccupping. Pressing very hard on the top of the mouth is also a means of stopping coughing, and many say the will alone has immense power. There are various other affections associated with breathing, which can be stopped by the same mechanism that stops the heart's action. In spasm of the glottis, which is a terrible thing in children, and also in whooping cough, it is possible to afford relief by throwing cold water on the feet or by tickling the soles of the feet, which produces laughter and at the same time arrests the spasm almost at once.

Picture and Frame.

"The function that the framing of a picture should subserve and the character which it consequently should have are so obvious that seemingly they ought not to be so easily and so often lost to view, as in reality they are," says Frederick W. Coburn in the International Studio. "A pictorial composition should, of course, be inclosed by a frame of such a sort that its attractiveness will be enhanced and that an agreeable transition will be established between it and its surroundings. Although the frame may in and for itself be beautiful, its beauty must be kept distinctly subservient to the aesthetic value of the picture. In no event may it be positively ugly. If machine construction is necessarily involved, this must at least be made as unobjectionable as possible. However, the frame should be produced in strict accordance with handicraft methods."

The Facts.

The One—And you say this horse hasn't any faults? The Other—Not a single fault. The One—But he appears to be blind in his right eye. The Other—Well, that's not his fault; it's his misfortune.—Chicago News.

SHAVING ON TRAINS.

Not a Difficult Task, Says a Man Who Has Tried It.

"There was a hurrah when some of the railroads started barber shops on their fast trains," said a traveling man. "The newspapers said that at last travelers could have the luxury of a shave whenever necessary and that no longer would we see unkempt men leaving the trains at the end of a long run."

"Now, the barber shops on the fast trains are undoubtedly a blessing to men who are not able to shave themselves, but for my part I consider them far more dangerous than the simple operation of shaving yourself, even when going at the rate of sixty miles an hour."

"I always shave myself, and I do not use a safety razor, yet I would sooner scrape my chin with an unprotected blade while the train is going sixty or seventy miles an hour than let a barber on the same train lean over me with a sharp razor and perform the operation."

"The reason for this is that when one holds the razor in one's own hand the razor moves with you if there should be a sudden jar or jolt. If you fall toward the razor the razor falls away from you, as your arm is naturally outstretched to prevent you from striking a wall."

"But suppose the barber is leaning over you as you sit in a chair and a sudden lurching of the train throws him against the chair. What chance have you in the chair to get away from the sharp blade coming in your direction?"

"I have shaved myself dozens of times on fast trains and slow trains, and I have never cut myself once. Yet a number of my acquaintances who have patronized the train barber shops have been compelled to wear court plaster during the remainder of the trip."

"Up to a year or so ago I never shaved myself on a train, and I never saw any one else doing it. Then perhaps because of the advent of safety razors it became a comparatively familiar sight to see a man shaving himself in the smoking room of the Pullman."

"I have had traveling men seeing me shave for the first time express their surprise that I did not cut myself owing to the lurching of the train, and when I have explained to them how easily one can shave on a train they have become instant converts to the practice. Like all simple things, one does not realize how simple it is until one has tried it."

"Another thing. It is infinitely smoother shaving when the train is going fast than when making only twenty-five or thirty miles an hour. The curves and the jolts seem more severe on a slow train. The steady motion of a swiftly moving train is more conducive to security and comfort than any slow train."—Washington Post.

Perfumed Foods.

The food of the gods in the Greek Olympus is described as sweeter than honey and of a most luscious fragrance; also it was a restorative. Apollo, in the "Iliad," saves the body of Sarpedon from putrefaction by the application of ambrosia. In the "Æneid" Venus heals the wounds of her son by this perfumed food, and it is said that Bernice, wife of Ptolemy Soter, tasted of it and was saved from death. The goddesses used it for the toilet when they wished to appear specially captivating—Juno when she adorned herself to meet Jupiter, Venus when she presented herself to Æneas and Psyche when her heart palpitated at the coming of Cupid. The Epicureans thought that perfume mixed with their wine enabled them to drink more plentifully without leaving ill effects. Not the Epicureans only, but the Bacchantes, mingled honey and a fragrant infusion of flowers in their wine cups. In the east perfumed sherbets are much appreciated, as well as highly scented cakes and lozenges.—London Society.

"How much coal is there, Susan?"

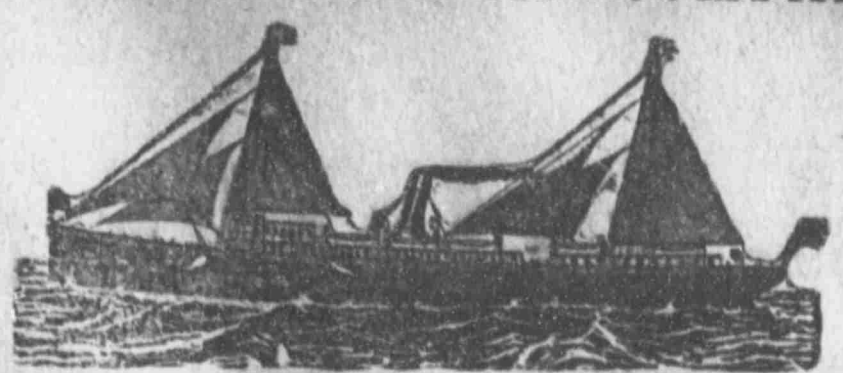

"How long will it last?"

"Well, ma'am, it will last quite awhile if you don't have any fire."

"Then there isn't much left?"

"There isn't any left, ma'am."

MAY BAR COTTON SEED OIL.

Cotton Seed May Also Be Kept Out by High Tariff.

Paris, Dec. 7.—Cotton seed and cotton seed oil, of which there is an enormous importation from America, are threatened with almost prohibitory duties. The subject was not included in the budget estimates, but is being pressed for consideration not only as a new source of revenue, but on the demand of the olive oil which is being extensively replaced by cotton seed oil products.

The customs commission of the chamber of deputies has decided to propose a rider to the budget, increasing the tariff on cotton seed to 6 francs and the duty on cotton seed oil to 12 francs per 100 kilograms.

The commerce commission of the chamber has protested against the inclusion of the new duties in the new budget, and having a reciprocity agreement in view, proposes to bring up the question in parliament as a separate matter. The foreign office has received from Ambassador McCormick strong representations against the suggested increases in duties. The most favorable feature in the situation from the American standpoint lies in the differences between the two commissions.

Supreme Court Denies New Trial.

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 7.—Judge Hammond denied a new trial for Arthur Glover, who is under sentence to be hanged for the murder of Maude Williamson, his sweetheart. Attorneys for the defendant have announced that they will appeal this case to the supreme court. Attorney Strange is a new-comer to Augusta, and his charge that a well known Baptist minister of Augusta, Rev. C. M. Wilkerson, declared that he would vote to "hang Glover high as Haman," if appointed on the jury, has created a sensation. Mr. Wilkerson made counter affidavit to this charge, in which he declares the statement, in effect, to be a lie. He claims that he stood out in the jury room at the trial for life imprisonment. This statement is corroborated by members of the jury.

Its action on the child is mild and leaves him in a healthy condition. NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athletes have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Para, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise." Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good."

To gain knowledge of your own body—in sickness and health—send for the People's Common Sense Medical Advisor. A book of 1008 pages. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Warrants Served on Them.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 7.—Warrants were served on the attorneys representing the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company and Superintendent Charles Marshall, of the New Orleans and Mobile division of that road, charging them with a violation of the arbitration act; otherwise discriminating against certain employees of the company. The parties made bond and were released. The indictments were found by the federal grand jury just adjourned at the instigation of the authorities at Washington, and they alleged that these men were discharged because they were members of the Order of Railway Telegraphers.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Postpone Time of Opening Bids.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock Thursday issued an order postponing from the 10th instant to the 15th, the opening of sealed bids for the pasture and wood reserve lands in the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Indian reservation in Oklahoma. The secretary's action was taken because recent heavy rains and high waters in the streams have delayed the mails and have rendered it impossible for prospective bidders to examine the lands.

Makes the Liver Lively.

Orinax Laxative Fruit Syrup gives permanent relief in cases of habitual constipation as it stimulates the liver, and restores the natural action of the bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. Does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Remember the name Orinax and refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Receives the Red Hat.

Rome, Dec. 7.—At the consistory held Thursday in place of the public consistory previously planned, Cardinal Samassa, archbishop of St. Riga, Hungary, who was present although suffering from illness, received the red hat. The pontiff preconized eighty-four bishops.

Notice to Our Customers.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Minister's Wife Found Dead.

New Orleans, Dec. 7.—A special from Meridian, Miss., tells of the mysterious death of Mrs. Annie Nelson, wife of a Methodist minister who is attending the Meridian Male college. The woman's body was found apparently concealed in a clump of bushes. Bloodstains were found on her body but they were small, and a coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Mrs. Nelson came to her death through natural causes.

PERE-LA-CHAISE.

Famous Resting Place of the Great Dead of France.

In the center of the most populous and hardest working part of Paris lies Pere-la-Chaise, the city of the dead. All fetes of the faubourg beat against the walls of this spot, which has its own fete twice a year. Within less than a century this cemetery has become the abode of at least 800,000 dead. It formerly formed a part of the domains of the bishopric of Paris under the name Champ Leveque. Under Louis XIV. it was known as Mont Louis. At last, May 21, 1894, the official opening of the new necropolis took place.

The white mausoleums among the green trees remind the visitor of an oriental city, but it is estimated that in twenty years there will not be space enough for one lone dead man. A calculation has been made which would point to the fact that the sum of $50,000,000 is represented in these last sleeping places of man. Even though the French may not always be grateful during the life of their illustrious children, there is a mighty attempt after death to prove appreciation. Among the famous men who are today lying calm and beloved in Pere-la-Chaise are Rossini, Bellini, Chopin, members of the famous Carnot family, Moliere, La Fontaine, Delacroix and Balzac.

Here the tomb of Heloise and Abbeard is visited continually by large numbers of pilgrims, and there is never an end to the sentiment around the Gothic monument rising from the bright hued geraniums and roses. Notwithstanding the iron railing, many a lover carries from the hallowed spot a petal blown across by the obliging breeze. Except for one section, where a considerable number of artists and authors, brothers in beauty and inspiration, are grouped, the tombs succeed each other without much order. There is a single monument erected by the state to the soldiers killed in the siege of Paris.

The "Rote of the Waves."

It is a favorite theory with the fishing and seafaring people on the north-east of Scotland that in a storm three waves are strong and violent, while the fourth is comparatively weak and less dangerous. This succession they call a "rote of waves." Fishermen returning from their fishing ground often prove by experience the truth of their theory and hang back as they come near the shore to take advantage of the lull that follows, say, pretty regularly after three big breakers.

Happiness in Marriage.

It all comes around to one of two things. With all married couples who differ in habit, in taste, in opinion, in mode of life, if there is to be any happiness somebody has to learn to give up or give up minding that there is a difference. Either way is as good as the other. It is surprising how many things are not of any importance if one can only think they are not.—Harper's Bazar.

Hopeless.

"Do you expect to make a business man out of your son?" asked an old friend.

"No, he's hopeless!" exclaimed the father. "I gave him a $1,000 bill the other day, and the first thing he did was to put it under a microscope to see what kind of germs it had on it."

"Bells of Shandon."

In one of the dormitories of the Irish college at Rome there is a space on the wall left unpainted and unpainted, whatever repairs the rest of the room may undergo, for there, carelessly scrawled, is the first rough draft of Father Prout's "Bells of Shandon."

Studies teach not their own use—that is, a wisdom without them and above them won by observation.—Bacon.

INJURED IN EXPLOSION

Explodes in a Shoe Factory Causing Great Damage.
Boston, Mass., Dec. 7.—A boiler in the four-story factory of the P. J. Harney Shoe company, West Lynn, Thursday, destroyed several acres, burning three factory buildings, the Boston factory station, and a number of small dwellings, besides injuring to eleven persons.
The financial loss is estimated at $100,000. Of the injured, six are at hospital. None will die.
The force of the explosion burst the machinery loaded floors of the Harney building and lifted the wreckage spread outward, entering the walls of nearby structures and adding the spread of the fire and sleet that started early in the day. In a brief space of time the West Lynn station of the Boston and Maine railroad was on fire.
Checked by the wide gap caused by the railroad tracks, the flames leaped the structures on the other side, licking up the first leather stock factory of the Jacobs company and sweeping through the district bordered by the small wooden tenementhouses.

A Western Wonder.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's as big as last year. This wonder W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says:
"I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured."
The cough and cold cure. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.
Bottle free.

Pleads Guilty to Embezzlement.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Hagbart Gregerson, formerly exchange teller of the Milwaukee avenue state bank, of which Paul O. Stensland was president, has pleaded guilty to embezzlement of the funds of the bank and was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary. Gregerson is the third official of the bank to be sentenced to prison.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls of Bellevue, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. See at all druggists'.

Grant Wage Increase.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 7.—Announcement was made Thursday that on December 10 the 5,000 operatives in all of the mills in this state owned by Goddard Bros., would receive an increase in wages. The exact amount of the increase has not been determined.

Brooks' Slayer Is Unknown.

Chipley, Ga., Dec. 7.—The investigation of the coroner's jury over the
